Here's Luck and friends celebrate Year of the Dragon

Australia's luckiest Lotto agency, Here's Luck Lottery Centre at Belmont Forum Shopping Centre, ushers in the Year of the Dragon with hundreds of friends and supporters keen to have a share of the good luck enjoyed by this agency over the last 10 years. Indeed, the popular owner Raj Selvendra is also celebrating the 10th anniversary of this flourishing business, as well as the recent addition of another winner to its long list of Division One winners; a total of 18 Division One winners in 10 years is no mean feat.

On this "triple happiness" day, amongst those on hand to congratulate Sel and inspect the good fengshui of the shop were the Hon Helen Morton MLC, Minister for Mental Health and Disability Services, representing the Premier, Michelle Roberts MLA representing the Leader of the Opposition, Shadow Ministers Hon Kate Doust MLC, Bill Johnston MLA and Ben Wyatt MLA, Phil Marks, Mayor of Belmont, Sue Doherty, Mayor of South Perth, Carol Hanlon, CEO Belmont Enterprise Centre, Tim Hammond, President of the Sussex Street Legal Centre, Dr Pushpalingam, Past District Governor, Rotary, Julian Roche, Director, WA Policy Forum.

Five lions from Shaolin Chow Ka Kung Fu School led by Sifu Quen created abundant excitement and colours, as well as plenty of noise to rid Belmont Forum Shopping Centre of all evil spirits. In his typical unassuming and sincere manner, Sel thanked all the dignitaries for their presence and all the customers for their continuing support, and wished everyone a prosperous new year ahead.
